Potluck Theology

Looking forward to Sunday's Ministries Celebration makes me think that there are two kinds of people in this world – those who like potlucks and those who don't.

I'm firmly in the first group. Green beans, mac and cheese, three kinds of salad, a smorgasbord of desserts? Count me in. (I still have unused notches in my belt!)

Of course, that isn't really true. There are many types of people. God created each of us with unique personalities, experiences, and gifts. And every time we gather as the Body of Christ, we bring who we are to the table.

That's what makes a potluck work. Somebody brings the funeral potatoes. Somebody brings the salad with Fritos in it. Somebody gets the chicken tenders and gravy, the rolls, the tea, and the paper plates. Thankfully, somebody always brings the dessert. Everybody brings something.

Now imagine if we all brought the same dish. Thirty-seven pans of deviled eggs? It wouldn't take long for us to all become potluck haters.

Worse yet, imagine if the person who was supposed to pick up the Chicken E didn't show up at all.

The church is no different. Paul reminds us that "there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit" (1 Corinthians 12:4). That's why we've been talking about the five voices of APEST. Some of us are wired to start new things (apostle). Some speak hard truths (prophet). Some share good news (evangelist), some care for the hurting (shepherd), and some help us understand (teacher). The body works best when we ALL bring our gifts.

You may think your gift isn't much. Maybe it feels like a bag of chips next to that pot of beef tips. But somebody is always glad to see the chips.

God didn't make us all the same because the Body of Christ needs everyone's uniqueness – including yours.

So, what are you bringing?

Peace,
Dan
